DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or overbusy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better by reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts. at Druggists or by mail. Liquid Cream Balm for use in atomizers 75 cts.
Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

BRYAN-DANIEL COLLOQUY.

William Jennings Bryan reached New York yesterday after his personal encounter with Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia, in Washington, Tuesday, when the Senator, it is alleged, told Mr. Bryan to his face in the crowded lobby of the Raleigh Hotel that it was time he ceased considering himself better than his party; that it was time he ceased taking his cue from the Independence League and returned to the democracy. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the merits of the quarrel, saying: "It was a personal affair between gentlemen, and gentlemen do not publicly discuss their personal affairs. We will settle it between ourselves." "Is a duel being planned?" "The Nebraskan laughed and replied that he would not discuss the matter.

Senator Daniel arrived in Richmond Tuesday night. Senator Daniel was yesterday morning shown the report of his encounter with Mr. Bryan, and read the report over carefully, expressing some surprise that a pleasant meeting had been converted into an apparent estrangement. He denied that any bitterness had been shown in his conversation with the Nebraskan. Asked regarding the occurrence, the Senator replied, "I did not know that I had had a sharp passage at arms with Colonel Bryan. This is the first intimation I have had of such a thing. There was some little pleasant badinage between us about some points about which we differ—the tilt growing out of the long acquaintance and easy terms on which we regard each other. I have time and again spoken with Mr. Bryan and hundreds of times for him. Our personal friendship has not changed, although differences exist between us on several important questions. I certainly had no idea that the brief talk between Colonel Bryan and myself was anything more than a personal interview between gentlemen. The discussion occurred while the carriage was at the door, and I was near the exit to take the train for Richmond and was nothing more than an offhand situation and the exchange of a few views on questions of general moment. I am surprised to know that the matter should be looked at in a different light."

SUNDAY CLOSING.

Arraignment in court of the first Chicago saloonkeepers arrested for failure to close their places of business Sunday, brought the Sabbath closing fight, in which the arrest of hundreds is promised to an issue yesterday. With the crisis reached, those opposing Sunday closing announced a new line of campaign to be followed in the event of defeat. The idea is to throw their entire support to Sunday closing and enforce all laws on the subject with such vigor that the laws will be rendered obnoxious to the entire community and be repealed.

This will mean arrests of persons in every branch of business conducted on Sunday, from the publication of Sunday newspapers to the operation of automobiles. Only one exception is conceded by the saloonkeepers. The barber shops are exempt from prosecution, under a Supreme Court decision.

If Sunday closing is enforced against the saloons, the liquor interests assert the same law will operate to bring to an end all business and social activity in which the element of noise or exchange of money enters, save what can be proved to be a work of necessity or charity.

Theaters, the amusement parks, ball games, all come within the measures referred to by the liquor interests as the "blue laws of 1845."

The cases against the saloon keepers were set for hearing December 10.

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at all drug stores.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

THANKSGIVING—1907.

Some day, we'll wander far and wide
O'er God's eternal plains—
Where from the highlands fall the chords
Of music's thrilling strains.
They'll fall upon our ravish'd souls
As some familiar air—
Recalling scenes of temple'd fanes—
Of people thronging there.
And, while fair Eden's belfrey chimes
After its silvern peal—
Memory will bear us to the shrine
Where we were wont to kneel,
In hallow'd worship to our King,
And on his altar lay
Our sheaves of praise and gratitude
On each Thanksgiving Day!
For, God holds our brief day of thanks—
Our prayers—the songs we sing—
The free will off'ring from our stores—
The chimes that sweetly ring—
As cherish'd trophies yielded Him:
Such as He'll ne'er forget;
A nation's love and loyalty;
When we're together met
To bless Him for the years of grace;
His love that crown'd each hour;
The sunlight—bringing bud and bloom—
The dew drops and the show'r.
Ah—as we wander on for aye
O'er God's broad kingdom fair—
We'll catch the echoes of the songs
That float on Eden's air,—
And, they will be those dear old hymns
Of love, and joyous praise
Once wafted up from earth to Heav'n
On glad Thanksgiving days!
All kept within a chalice, just
To greet our Saviour's own—
When we've pass'd thro' the golden gate
To worship at His throne.
Beyond John's mystic crystal sea,
The "music of the spheres"
Will only be thanksgiving songs
Sung in life's vale of tears!

THURSDAY EVENING. NOV. 28, 1907.

NEWSPAPERS, though little valued after having once been read, represent a large outlay of money and considerable every day thought and toil. It was shown by actual figures about thirty years ago that nearly three thousand dollars were expended on each issue of a four-page daily paper in New York city which sold for a cent a copy. The world has advanced considerably during the past third of a century and much greater demands have been made upon journalists in order to keep abreast of the times. Some papers are three times the dimensions they were in the seventies; hence much larger outlays are necessary in order to furnish records of current events and to meet competition. In the Walsh trial in Chicago yesterday it was stated that the proprietor of the defunct Chronicle of that city sunk $1,000,000 in two years in trying to keep the paper alive. Some people strangely imagine a newspaper should be a public omnibus, and suppose the chief end of the publisher should be to advertise them personally or to fill the columns with free advertisements of enterprises in which they are interested. Often such claimants are not subscribers, but read papers paid for by others with no more thought than when asking for a match or a pin.

IT is now stated that Panama canal bonds have been sold to the banks, chiefly those in New York, for 10 per cent. of their value in cash. Ninety per cent. of the purchase price is to remain in the banks as additional government deposits, for which the banks will deposit securities with the government. This is the newest and latest development in Secretary Cortelyou's marvelous scheme of government financiering, through which the government is to increase its debt, and the interest charges it is compelled to pay, in order to put money in the banks. The scheme almost overshadows the sale of the debt certificates to the banks for 25 per cent. cash. It marks the final stage in the great hold-up of the government by the New York banks, and crowning act of Cortelyou's weakness a secretary of the treasury. The issue of Panama canal bonds, authorized ly for the purpose of building the anama canal, are to be used, as the debt certificates are being used, to swell the profits of the banks.

HAVING been thwarted in his interesting test of co-operative housekeeping, Mr. Upton Sinclair is now ready to dare destiny with a new co-operative scheme whose success is already assured by its Neolithic simplicity. Mr. Sinclair and his admirers are going to return to nomad life, starting from Battle Creek, Mich., and wandering thence up and down the earth with wagons and tents, just like real gypsies. According to the instigator of this gambol, those who participate in it will escape all the troubles of co-operative housekeeing that vexed them now and then at Helicon Hall; there will be neither plumbers nor carpenters, neither steam heating, taxes nor fires to distract the wanderers from their sweet idleness. To make worry over prosaic things utterly impossible, there will be provided maids for the ladies, governesses for the children and a stenographer for the literary clansmen. Thus emancipated, the merry band will have solved the great problem of co-operative loafing.

THE authenticity and possibility of the Biblical account of Jonah's remarkable adventure in the Mediterranean Sea is about to be substantiated or rejected by the Massachusetts courts. The Christian Bible College, of Boston, has brought suit against Rev. Gustavus A. Hoffman, of Maplewood, to enforce the payment of an indorsed note. Mr. Hoffman declined to pay the note on the ground that when he signed it he believed the college to be orthodox, but has discovered that it is not. He cites the story of Jonah, which, he says, the college refuses to accept, and says he will ask the courts to pass on the tale. The outcome of this matter will be awaited with interest. The story of Jonah is about 2,700 years old, and his experience is more wonderful than anything related of Sindbad. It is hoped the Massachusetts courts will place the issue on the privileged docket and pass on it as soon as possible.

THE LOSS of employment by so many men throughout the country is, as stated in yesterday's Gazette, causing a tremendous increase in the number of applications for positions on the Panama canal. Col. Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the canal commission, is so flooded with these applications that he has sent the following dispatch to Washington: "Discourage vigorously any applicants for work coming to the isthmus without appointment. All positions filled and no increase contemplated. Unemployed men without funds sources of embarrassment.,'

AT the school conference now being held in Roanoke, a plan is being discussed to compel the attendance of children in the public schools. These are strange times. The State, cities, towns and counties are taking great trouble in providing, and the people are being heavily taxed for the support of the schools and yet in many instances the attendance is so small, that compulsory measures are talked of.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 28.

The conclusion of almost every discussion of the currency question by public men here, is the inquiry, how does Aldrich stand?" It is conceded that the Rhode Island Senator, chairman of the finance committee, will practically shape any currency legislation that is enacted at the coming session of congress. He may not get just what he wants, but there is no doubt that he will prevent what he seriously disapproves. Unless the Senate breaks loose from his control—which has not often occurred—he will decide whether a comprehensive currency system, or a make-shift will be adopted. His present attitude is unknown. One of the important questions now bothering the administration, and leaders of both parties, is to determine just how far it would be wise to go in the issuing of additional bank circulation against various classes of securities other than United States bonds. A search of the Congressional Record, indicates that the great legislative financier believes in the widest extension of the privilege consistent with safety. It is believed Aldrich would favor the establishment of a central organization of existing national banks, as has been suggested by some eminent financial authorities. Whether he would give his sanction to the plan for a central bank of issue by the government, is doubtful. The Senator is a good friend of the national banks. It is not likely that he would favor the requiring of national banks to pay interest on public deposits.

The chief executive of the newest republic in the world, Dr. Amador, president of Panama, will arrive in Washington this afternoon, accompanied by the members of his family.

Representatives of the Five Nations, on reservations in what was formerly Indian Territory, are in the city consulting with Attorney George W. Woodruff, of the Interior Department. This is the first of a series of conferences with various officials in the Interior Department, held with a view to ascertain the attitude of the Indians in the newly created State of Oklahoma toward existing laws, and to consider their requests for new legislation. Judge Woodruff will report the results of the conferences to Secretary Garfield and the latter will likely give the indians a hearing later.

The President, with members of his family, and several guests, left on a special train for Montpelier, Va., at 9 o'clock today, to make a pilgrimage to the former home of President Madison. Accompanying the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, were their daughter Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, Assistant Attorney General Cooley and Surgeon General Rixey. The departure was the first the President has taken through the executive entrance of the new $20,000,000 Union station. He paused long enough to make a general survey of the structure, and pronounced it magnificent. The Madison home at Montpelier is now occupied by William Du Pont. The call will be informal and brief. President Roosevelt will visit the Madison tomb to lay upon it a wreath of flowers. The party will return to Washington in time to take Thanksgiving dinner at the White House in the evening.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General DeGraw calls attention to unwitting violation of the postal regulations committed by senders of third and fourth class mail matter—photographs, books, merchandise, etc. "A good many folks," said Mr. DeGraw today, "see no harm in writting a message of good cheer, or a 'Merry Christmas' on a photograph or book or on a card, in a package of merchandise, but such, nevertheless, is a distinct violation of the postal regulations and laws of the land. The department is lenient with those who it thinks are innocent offenders. The statute prohibiting sending written messages in third and fourth class matter, contains a provision that the postoffice inspector may, at his discretion, settle with the offender by fining him $10. Otherwise the matter would be brought into the courts."

The absurdest stories concerning the purpose of the Taft's visit are circulating in St. Petersburg. One is that two Russian army corps in the Philippines, will arrange to send a United States corps to Vladivostok and is already engaging Russian officers at high salaries.

Reports from Panama for October, show thrt 32,054 men were employed in the canal zone at the end of the month—the largest force since the inception of the canal under the French.

President Roosevelt has decided to put up to Congress the question of deciding whether the Jamestown Exposition shall be open next summer, if the exposition company desires. It is understood the President will direct that the government exhibits be allowed to remain at the exposition until Congress shall pass upon the question of making an appropriation for keeping them there.

Secretary Root will call upon Congress at the coming session for an appropriation for a new State Department building. Such a building, to house the Departments of Justice and Commerce and Labor, as well as State, will be asked for by the President, upon the urgent recommendations of Attorney General Bonaparte and Secretary Straus, as well as by Secretary Root. The estimates for the building, which will reach the neighborhood of $5,000,000 will be prepared by Secretary Root.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

The MacCrackens are now in jail in default of $3,000 bail.

Labor leaders generally, in Washington and elsewhere, are enthusiastic over the success of the demonstration Tuesday evening, and over the speech of William Jennings Bryan, giving his views with regard to organized labor. Mr. Bryan's speech met with universal approval from them, and he has undoubtedly won many followers.

Representative John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, the democratic minority leader in the House, has had a conference with Speaker Cannon on the subject of the minority representation on the House committees. He told the Speaker that the democrats would insist upon an increase in their representation corresponding with the increase in the democratic membership of the House.

With the conclusion of the count by the State returning board of Rhode Island yesterday of the ballots cast in the general election of November 5, it was announced that Ralph C. Walrous, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor, has been elected by nine votes. His opponent was Charles Sisson, who it was claimed was elected on the face of the original returns. The total number of votes cast was 62,424.

Disappointed, it is said, at having been defeated in the recent campaign for United States Senator by Congressman John Sharp Williams, Gov. Vardaman, of Mississippi, will retire from politics at the end of his present term, to devote his future to journalism. An organization has been perfected for launching a daily at Jackson, and the governor will be at its head as editorial writer, adviser, and general manager.

Clergymen and laymen who appeared at yesterday's meeting of the board of education in New York to express their views about Christmas exercises in the public schools were headed off before they got much further than "Mr. Chairman." The secretary introduced a resolution reciting that the board on February 13 had forbidden the singing of hymns or songs of a sectarian character and the reading of any distinctively religious treaties or book other than the Bible, and ordered that all such treaties and books be stricken from the textbook list. It also ordered that great care be taken to eliminate any matter of a religious or sectarian character from the Christmas exercises. The resolution was carried unanimously.

A Rock Island passenger train was ditched near Ottowa, Illinois, today and several persons injured. All of the passengers who were given a severe shaking up. The engineer, and the firemen were pinned under the engine but will likely recover.

MEAT PRICES.

As stated in yesterday's Gazette the big Chicago meat packers say if the meat prices have not been materially reduced during the month the retailers are the ones who are gouging the people. The packers say that within that time they have reduced the prices to the retailers on pork from 3½ to 5½ cents a pound. Pork loins are now selling to the dealer at 8½c. Thirty days ago they were 14 cents a pound. Pork chops now sell to the retailer at 6½ cents a pound. Thirty days ago they were 10 cents. Mutton is one cent a pound lower tean 30 days ago, beef has fallen off 25 to 30 cents a hundred pounds. The packers have reports that retailers are still holding the prices at highwater mark and they are anxions, their representatives said, to have this stopped, because there has been so much criticism of the packers. The packers, it is said, are worried about the tariff. They fear that if the clamor against their prices continues, the tariff will be removed from Canadian and Mexican meat products at the next session of Congress.

MAXIM'S MAXIM.

Modest Claims Often Carry More Conviction Than Loud Boasts.

When Maxim, the famous inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be considerably below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a triumph of surprise instead of disappointment as it might have been if he had overestimated his gun's efficiency.

It is reported that the Jamestown Exposition will be placed in the hands of a receiver on Monday next, by an agreement reached several weeks ago. The managers will close the gates on Saturday, winding up the exposition which has been a financial failure. Liabilities, according to official figures, will reach the sum of $3,465,000. The total assets are $710,000. The failure of the exposition is blamed on poor management, and the report that the purpose of some of the originators of the fair was to promote a real estate speculation.

NATION VERSUS STATE.

Application is to be made to the U. S. Supreme Court by counsel for the Southern Railway for permission to file a brief in the habeas corpus proceedings now before the court at the instance of the Attorney General of Minnesota, for the purpose of deciding the extent of jurisdiction possessed by State and federal courts in railroad rate controversies. The brief to be filed will give the court the points in controversy in North Carolina, where the State and federal courts have conflicted over the State rate applied to the Southern Railway. While the Supreme Court will be asked to pass specifically on this case, it is regarded as advantageous that it should have before it in a general way the principle involved when it decides the habeas corpus proceedings, which, because of their nature, take an earlier place on the calender.

The Christmas number of Everybody's Magazine, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is the largest and most comprehensive ever put out by this magazine. Its articles are significant and far reaching, the most notable of which is "What Caused the Panic." "What is a good Man?" is answered by men of reputation, and "Where did you get it, Gentlemen?" exposes the methods of the American Tobacco Trust. "The Romance of the Reaper" is given and "The Travesty of Christ in Russia" tells of the religious oppression in that country. "Christmas and the Spirit of Democracy," "Children of the long ago" - Booth Tarkington's serial, eight short stories, good verse and illustrations complete this attractive holiday issue.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Murder and Suicide

New York, Nov. 28.—J. Whitley, heating and ventilating engineer, 215 Fulton street, Brooklyn, shot his wife dead and jumped to death from his room on the ninth floor of the Hotel Belleclaire, at Broadway and 77th street, early today. Whitley for some time had suffered from nervousness, and it is believed his mind had finally given away. In the apartment was found a 32 caliber revolver with four loaded chambers. The fired shells had been removed. Whitley had afterward, judging from the towels spread on the bath room floor, intended to shoot himself but apparently changed his mind and jumped from the window instead. Whitley was prosperous, and, so far as can be learned, always lived happily with his wife.

The only explanation for the murder and suicide is that Whitley, who owned much property, was so tied up financially that it was difficult for him to realize ready money for the conduct of his business, and that he lost his mind temporarily through worry over financial matters. The dead man was about 60 years old, and had done a large manufacturing business in heating, ventilating and lighting equipment. His skull was crushed by his fall and nearly every bone in his body broken. The corpse lay in the street for nearly an hour before it was taken to the west Sixty-eighth street police station. Mrs. Whitley was about 20 years her husband's junior.

Girl Assaulted and Robbed.

New York, Nov. 28.—Assaulted, robbed and left unconscious by a highwayman, Margaret Kelly, the pretty girl cashier in a down-town restaurant, is dying in Harlem Hospital. Two unknown men brought her to the hospital in a cab saying they found her unconscious at the Hotel Boulevard, where the management, however, denied she was a guest. Miss Kelly revived long enough today to tell the doctors that she was followed from the 161st street subway station on her way home from work Tuesday night and choked into unconsciousness by a man, of whom she can give but the vaguest description. When she partly recovered consciousness she says she appealed to passersby for help, but instead of being taken home was removed—she does not know why—to a hotel, where she again lapsed into unconsciousness from which she did not revive until she reached the hospital.

Helpless by Dead Wife.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 28.—To a policeman's suspicion that no sight of either for two days indicated something amiss, George Rothwell, a paralytic, owes his rescue from an indefinite companionship abed beside his dead wife. The Rothwells lived at No. 711 west Fourth street. When Policeman Frank Kane burst in their door yesterday he found the wife dead in bed. How long she had lain in that state the husband could not tell, as he is a paralytic mute. Consequently he had been unable by movement or speech to announce his plight to his neighbors, probably for two days. The wife was last seen early yesterday morning, and it is believed she retired shortly afterward. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death. Rothwell is in a serious condition as a result of the shock and the harrowing experience of having to remain in bed with the corpse of his wife.

Put Him in Ice Box.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 28.—Robbed and locked in an ice-box by burglars, Stephen Machinsky, a hotel-keeper of Plains, near here, was almost frozen before he was rescued yesterday. He opened the barroom of his hotel at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and as he did so two young men entered and ordered a drink. As he turned to make change they covered him with revolver, took the money in the cash register—$28—and, threatening to shoot him, drove him into the big ice box alongside the bar. They then snapped the door shut and got away. It was half-past seven before Machinsky's wife, who had been searching all over for him, heard a noise in the ice-box, opened it and found him. He suffered greatly from the cold, and has been under a physicians care since. There is no clew to the men.

Seven Men Asphyxiated.

Kansas City, Nov. 28.—Firemen searching the ruins of a rooming house on Union Avenue which burned early today found the bodies of seven men. Other bodies are expected to be found. The fire was caused, it is presumed, by an explosion of natural gas. The bodies were not burned and death was caused by the explosion or by asphyxiation. The building was used as a saloon and rooming house for laborers, and only one of the dead has been identified. The owner of the rooming house said he did not know how many men were sleeping in the place last night. He escaped in his night clothes.

Labor Men to Fight Foraker.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 28.—The Ohio Federation of Labor will fight Senator Foraker for any position to which he may aspire at the Ohio voters' hands. This is the declaration of Harry D. Thomas, newly elected secretary of the federation. "Mr. Foraker has shown us absolutely that he is against union labor," said Thomas today. "Accordingly we will be against him. He has been a corporation man all his life." Until the recent reorganization of the Ohio Federation it was said that Foraker men controlled that body.

Mr. Bryan Occupies a Pulpit.

Worcester Mass. Nov. 28.—William J. Bryan occupied the pulpit of the Adams street Congregational church here today. The regular pastor is the Rev. Percy H. Elper, formerly of Lincoln Neb., and an old friend of Bryan. It was through Mr. Elper's urgent request that the Nebraskan was persuaded to deliver a Thanksgiving Day sermon. At its conclusion Mr. Byran went to the clergyman's house and ate his share of a 25-pound turkey with the usual fixings.

Explosions and Fire.

New York, Nov. 28.—Fire following a serious of three explosions, wrecked the interior of the suspended Borough Bank of Brooklyn's Eighth ward today. The police say they are not sure whether crackesmen tried to loot the bank or whether an attempt was made to destroy evidence relating to the Borough Banks failure.

Anti-government Party Suppressed.

Paris, Nov. 28.—King Carlos and Premier Franco have so thoroughly suppressed the Lisbon anti-government party, that it is announced today that the king and crown prince will officiate together tomorrow at the annual distribution of prizes to the Second infantry. The prince was recently banished to an isolated royal estate for siding with the republicans against his father. It is understood he will be brought to Lisbon under heavy guard, ostensibly for his protection, and will remain virtually a prisoner until his majesty is satisfied of his loyalty. The capital is still a smoldering magazine, and the trial of those accused of conspiracies against the king is going forward secretly before a special court.

Knife Duel.

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—Huddled behind their escort, Miss Mary Craigie and Ollie Stewart witnessed a knife duel between their chevalier, Chester Fritche, early today, and six men who attacked him. After five minutes of strenuous fighting Fritche wounded two men and drove the rest off. Fritchie was returning with the girls from a dance when they were attacked by William J. Purcelli and five other men. Purcelli said that Fritchie had beat him out of a dance with Miss Craigie. Herman Schumburg, who claimed to be a peacemaker, was stabbed four times and Purcelli was severely injured. Fritchie and Purcelli are held by the police.

Hunting Fatalities.

Chicago Nov. 28.—Seventy-five persons were killed most of them by carelessness during the hunting season of 1907, now about to close. Last year 74 persons lost their lives in pursuit of game. One hundred and six hunters were hurt this year, compared with only seventy during 1906. In Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota, where most of the accidents to hunters happen, fifty persons lost their lives this year against previous year. Practically all of the accidents were due to the careless handling of weapons, the victims having been mistaken for game.

The Powers Trial.

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 28.—In order to get through with the examination of the veniremen as fast as possible, Judge Morris, sitting in the trial of Caleb Powers, held a session of court last night, and is continuing today in an effort to complete the jury by night. There are eight finally accepted jurors and it is hoped that the jury can be completed in time for a good Thanksgiving Day dinner this afternoon. This is the sixteenth day of the trial. There are three republicans among the eleven jurors.

Mormons Expelled.

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Four Mormon missionaries were expelled from the Kingdom of Saxony yesterday as undesirable aliens. They will be permitted to linger nowhere in the German empire. The authorities' anti-Mormon activity is due to the Kaiser's influence. He has repeatedly signified that he will not permit the church to proselyte anywhere in his dominions.

MRS. BRADLEY'S TRIAL.

The prosecution presented several witnesses yesterday in Washington in the trial of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley for murder, and before adjournment the government had piled up a mass of testimony against the defendant, principally along the line of combating the contention that she was insane when she shot former Senator Arthur Brown.

The government succeeded in placing in evidence statements Mrs. Bradley made to detectives after the shooting, in which, according to witnesses, she admitted that she shot Brown because he refused to do the right thing by her and their two boys.

Soren Christenson, describing an encounter between Mrs. Brown and the defendant, said:

"Mrs. Brown jumped at Mrs. Bradley catching her by the throat, and began to choke her, when I separated them. Mrs. Brown said: 'Let me alone, I want to kill her.' "Senator Brown admitted being the father of two of Mrs. Bradley's children, but denied being the father of Max Brown. Mrs. Brown upbraided him, saying: 'You low, vile degenerate; a man who would deny his own son.'"

Archie Livingston, former Senator Brown's secretary, said: "I told Mrs. Bradley that the Senator never intended to marry her, and she said 'he will have to do it, or I will blow his head off.' Senator Brown said, 'I will state in the presence of my bitterest enemy that I will stick to Mrs. Bradley as long as life lasts.' I told Mrs. Bradley many an untruth so that she and I could get along together.'"

Dr. Shute was on the stand when court adjourned yesterday until Friday morning, it being decided that the proceedings should not be continued on Thanksgiving Day.

Gathering their forces for the last struggle, attorneys for the government and for the defense in the Bradley trial devoted the Thanksgiving interim to preparation of their final appeals to the jury upon whom the outcome will depend. Of the testimony to be taken, there is left but the opinion of the government's alienists. When this is completed, the attorneys will argue to the court their prayers for instructions to the jury, and then will begin the long addresses closing the case. The jurymen celebrated their Thanksgiving in their quarters in the courthouse. A dinner was prepared for them at one of the cafes in the vicinity.

A Hard Debt to Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Court adjourned to meet on Frid

TO THE VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The circumstances surrounding th test for the nomination induces me a become a candidate for Congress, sub the action of the democratic primary.

In the recent primary four countie sented candidates, and local pride ar sonal attachments contributed largely result, viz., the selection of a candidate with a majority of 2,671, against him. This defect in our primary law should be remedied, so as to make the selection of a minority candidate impossible, by requiring the race to be run over by the two highest candidates, when neither has a majority. The additional expense entailed is not to be compared with the right of the majority to rule.

If the present incumbent was a majority candidate I would not antagonize him, but it yet remains to be determined which of us is the choice of a majority of the district.

The retirement of Mr. Ryan from the recent contest was successfully used by some of Mr. Carlin's supporters to injure me upon the day of the election. They openly charged a combination between us and intimated that Mr. Ryan had been improperly influenced. It was too late to meet the charge and it cost me many votes in those portions of the district where I was a comparative stranger. This charge was wholly false. Nothing passed between Mr. Ryan and myself except his propositions to cast lots as to which of us should retire; these I declined, stating to him that his only course was to make the fight to a finish, or retire from the race, leaving his friends entirely free to support their second choice.

This is my first opportunity of responding to this charge and I invite the politicians who made it, to let the people know upon what facts it was based. Any question of personal injustice to me, however, is of less importance to the voters than the principles for which the candidates stands. The question now confronting the American people is whether the railroads, trusts and other monopolists shall control this government and make its laws, for their selfish ends, or whether it shall be administered in the interest of the masses of the people. "I am a democrat" no longer commands the people's confidence; we find democrats fighting the battles of trusts and corporations, and democrats struggling to control them, democrats who believe in the rule of the people, and democrats who believe that the people are unfit to rule, democrats who believe in free competition and democrats who defend monopoly.

I am one of those democrats who sincerely believe that a private monopoly is intolerable and indefensible, and that no man or corporation is good enough to own a monopoly of any of the necessaries of life.

The monetary exactions of the trusts and corporations are less injurious to us, however, than their corrupting influence upon our public men. In order to stifle competition and control the market they must have legislators favorable to their interests, and to secure these they are ready to furnish their candidates unlimited means.

It is, therefore, self-evident that the sheet anchor of American liberty is the purity of our ballot. If monopolists may first tax us unjustly and use this tax to purchase another election the power of the people is destroyed. In the last canvass I did not spend a dollar improperly, for I then believed and still believe that the purity of the ballot is more important than the success of any individual, and I shall conduct this canvass upon the same principle. It is impossible in the space of a card to state fully my political convictions, but I hope during the progress of the canvass to have the opportunity of discussing them publicly. I cannot close this card without thanking my friends for their warm and generous support in the recent contest, and look forward with pleasure to the opportunity of seeing them again, and I trust that I shall make the acquaintance of the people of the district generally, and hope to enlist the sympathy and support of gentlemen who have not heretofore supported me.

Very respectfully yours,

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Thanksgiving Day has been observed hereabouts in the usual way. Numbers of strangers have visited the city, while many Alexandrians went to other cities and some have spent the day in the country with relatives and friends. About the average number spent the day gunning. The banks, city offices, and schools have been closed and the usual holiday hours were observed at the city postoffice. Many business houses closed in the afternoon. Union services were held at the First Baptist Church at 11 o'clock. The congregations of the Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Methodist Protestant churches participated in these services. Rev. E. V. Regester, presiding elder of the Washington district of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, delivered the sermon. Appropriate services were also held at 11 o'clock in the three Episcopal churches. Services at St. Mary's Church were held at 6:30 and 8 o'clock, when masses were celebrated. At 11 o'clock services were held at the German Lutheran Church. Today has been donation day at the Alexandria Hospital. The Children's Home, 406 Duke street, was opened at 8 a. m. and will remain open until 10 p. m. to receive donations. The day was a "home-coming day" to many Alexandrians who temporarily reside in other places but who annually return to their old homes to spend Thanksgiving Day with their families and friends.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Last night's meeting of Fitzgerald Council surpassed all previous social sessions. The address of Rev. Walter B. Noon, O. P., on the "Ideal Knight of Today," was a masterful effort and showed this young priest well able to uphold the title of the Dominican Fathers as the Order of Preachers. Mr. J. J. O'Neill, diocesan president of Father Matthew Total Abstinence Society, of the diocese of Scranton, Pa., spoke on the great good accomplished by the Father Matthew Society in the United States and gave personal reminiscences of forty years in the slums and penal institutions of the great cities of this country in the cause of temperance and religion. Messrs. Cleary and Maxwell, of Potomac Council, Washington, received rounds of applause for their recitations and songs. Rev. Fathers Cutler and Carne made short addresses. After adjournment the visitors and members repaired to the Hotel Rammel and this well known hostelry upheld their reputation by setting out a well-appointed buffet supper.

FALL OF WIRE.

The trolley wire of the electric railway broke and fell shortly before nine o'clock last night at the intersection of King and Columbus streets and traffic was considerably delayed. The accident caused a brilliant electrical display. The wire fell again this morning and caused another delay in the running of trains.

POLICE COURT.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning. John Bryan, colored, was arrested yesterday evening by Officers Bell and Ferguson charged with the larceny of a crate of beer from the saloon of Joseph Breen, southeast corner Princess and Fairfax streets. Bryan's case will come up in the Police Court tomorrow.

LARDER ROBBED.

A sneak thief provided himself with the substantials for a Thanksgiving Day dinner at the expense of Dr. Delaney last night by invading his premises, opening the refrigerator and appropriating a tenderloin beefsteak and same plump chickens.

The fair weather was followed by cloudy conditions last night, and about 11 o'clock there was light rain and some hail. The weather today has been mild and fair.

PERSONAL.

The Misses Danenhower at their home on King street last Tuesday afternoon most charmingly entertained a number of their friends at a card party. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

Miss Eleanor Marshall is spending the winter with her brother, Mr. Stribling Marshall, in Norfolk.

The Fanchon Club gave their fourth dance of the season at McBurney's Hall last night, which was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. Harvey L. Allen, who eight weeks ago had one of his thumbs mashed at the Sterling Steel Works at Gelsboro, and who was taken to Providence Hospital in Washington, is suffering from blood poison. Two amputations of the thumb have been performed, and there is danger of him losing his arm.

Master Wilton Arrington was operated upon for throat trouble, at his home on Queen street, this morning.

Midgets will be ordered to be hanged in the jail yard early in January.

FOOTBALL.

The football contest on the old Fair Grounds this afternoon between Randolph Macon and Second Alexandrians was won by the latter by a score of 16 to 5.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and catartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—MRS. ROSA POTTS, Birmingham, Ala. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29,

Will Be Our Last

REMNANT DAY

Till After Christmas.

It will be the most interesting of the present season. We shall be too busy after this week to give our attention to remnants. And as every foot of shelf and counter and floor space is needed for the proper display of our magnificent stock of Gift Goods, which already surpasses anything heretofore attempted, we are going to clear out all the small and incomplete lots and tarrying fall things to start the new month with fresh, clean and unbroken stocks. To this end we have thoroughly ransacked every department in the house and separated there from everything that savors of a remnant. Many an odd bit of silk, or ribbon, or velvet, or lace, &c., may be found which can be made use of for Christmas. Numerous odd pieces of china, bric-a-brac, cut glass, etc. Scores of useful lengths in dress goods—ends of the choicest fabrics—suitable for women's dresses, skirts and waists and children's dresses, at half and nearly half former prices. Wrap, Suit, Linen, Upholstery—in fact, every department in the house presents rear buying opportunities.

With the remnants are several bargain lots of merchandise, some of which were purchased for the occasion; others are goods reduced in prices for one reason or another. A goodly collection of remnants of worthy goods in broad and immediate demand at specially reduced prices—prices that should clear them out quickly and completely.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

A CONTRADICTION.

Amissville, Va., Nov. 21.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

I enclose a clipping from the 8th of August number of the Gazette, also a contradiction of the same from Mrs. Green. Will you please republish it in your next paper with Mrs. Green's piece just below. Very respectfully,

MRS JANIE M. GREEN.

GONE TO OMAHA.

Deserting her husband because, as she charges, he was unkind to her, Mrs. C. J. Green, a handsome young woman of Culpeper, has gone to Omaha, in company with her three little children, to file a suit for divorce, and when she obtains her decree she is to marry G. J. Raynor, a young man who has been in the employ of her husband.

"My husband was cruel to me," said Mrs. Green, "and I picked up my three babies and ran away from my home. I read in the newspapers that I could become a citizen of Nebraska after a residence of six months and then procure a divorce without any trouble.

"Mr. Raynor gave me money to come on and to help pay my expenses for a while, but I find my money is all gone, and I don't know what I shall do. Mr. Raynor felt sorry for me because my husband treated me so badly, and that is why he assisted me to come here. It is our intention to be married when I get my divorce from Mr. Green."

November 14, 1907.

I do hereby positively contradict having anything to do with, or know anything about the above piece being published in the papers, and should have never known it, but for my sister, who was kind enough to write and tell me Later on, as soon as she could get the piece she sent it to me, for which I thank her very much, as it gives me a chance to state to the public that I am innocent of knowing anything about it, for I never told any one that my money had about played out and that I did not know what to do, for I did know what to do just what I expected to do when I started from home, and that was to go to work, which I have done and am boarding my three children and keeping the two oldest ones in school. The oldest one showed me her report today which is a very nice one, indeed, I also positively deny telling anyone that it was my intention to marry G. J. Raynor, for my whole soul's intention was in getting a divorce, was to be freed from a man whom I believed was a sin for me to live with any longer. And I feel that God has been with us and blessed us in my undertakings. Respectfully,

Mrs. C. J. GREEN.

NOTICE —TO THE— ALEXANDRIA PUBLIC.

I have this day accepted the agency for the Patent Fin Hot Water Heater. It is now on exhibition in my store where you can inspect same. It is the most modern up-to-date Gas-heated Hot Water Radiator in the World.

When it is considered that we must depend on some method of artificially heating our homes and public places practically half the year, and that during this time our life is largely spent in doors in an artifical atmosphere and temperature, it certainly seems natural that we should use methods of heating that would not endanger health (by violating Nature's laws of physics and physiology), nor be needlessly expensive and wasteful. Yet, the fact is, a very small proportion of our homes and business places are healthfully, comfortably and economically heated.

The Patent Fin Hot Water Radiator does this or otherwise you may return it. Come in and let us explain it.

PREDICTS DROP IN WAGES.

"After the speed at which this country has been traveling during the past few years it was inevitable that financial and commercial reaction should overtake us," said William H. Truesdale, president of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, the most profitable railroad in the United States.

"We have been under a business tension too high for safety. Every productive and transportation facility was strained to the utmost. The commercial structure was expanding to the limit. The cost of production kept mounting higher, and the expenditures of the people increased rapidly. We all were living beyond a reasonable standard. I think we ought to be thankful, in a measure, that the reaction has come now.

"I think wages will be readjusted first. The retrenchment of business enterprise will throw numbers of men out of employment. They will seek work, and, as the applicants will be more numerous than the jobs, the price of labor naturally will fall.

"This condition in turn will have effect upon the price of commodities. The same law of supply and demand will operate and prices will have to come down."

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough, FIGHT IN SENATE CHAMBER.

A fist fight on the floor of the Illinois State Senate at Springfield yesterday was an aftermath of the defeat of the primary bill Tuesday night by the House. State Senator James A. Henson, of Decatur, brought about a physical encounter with Representative David E. Shanahan, of Chicago. The trouble started when Henson, in a fiery speech, characterized the members of the House as "porch-climbers, inspired degenerates, and thieves," because they had refused to adopt the conference report on the primary bill.

Shortly after Henson had delivered himself of this, Mr. Shanahan happened into the Senate chamber. Turning to him, Henson is reported to have said:

"Yes, you, Dave Shanahan, I'll say it to you. You are not honest."

"What's that?" retorted Shanahan. "Did you say I am not honest?"

"Yes, I do," replied Henson.

Like a flash the Cooke county representative sprang at Henson and landed a stiff blow on the face of the Senator. The two clinched and went down on the floor. At this point bystanders interferred and the men were separated. Soon afterward apologies were made all around.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES

The Gas Is Outclassed

It cannot be compared with electricity when it comes to providing light for reading purposes.

Electric light is strong, clear and steady, and does not injure the eyes. Not so with gas. It is constantly jumping, and plays havoc with the eyes.

An Electric Light

system should be installed in your home or office. We'll put it for you at a reasonable cost. Estimates cheerfully given upon any work in our line.
